

Happy

CHILDREN'S DAY

14th November

"Children are like shoots in a garden that must be nurtured with care and affection, because they are the future of the nation and future citizens. Only through proper education can a better order of society be established."

www.shardainternationalschool.in